Rules and Classes for American Dorper Sheep Breeders' Society Youth Show

Show Rules

1. All exhibitors must be a current Junior member of the American Dorper Sheep Breeders' Society (ADSBS) and in good standing. The ADSBS recognizes a junior member as a member 21 years of age and younger.
2. Ownership of the sheep must be in the junior member's name. Partnerships, farms, families, 4-H Clubs or FFA chapters are not acceptable.
3. There is no minimum age for exhibitors, but the youth exhibitor must be physically capable of controlling and showing their own sheep, except in cases of physical disabilities. Another youth exhibitor may assist as heeler to set hind legs.
4. Exhibitors will not offer any tips or money to a contracted judge with the expectation of an altered placing.
5. Exhibitors will make every effort not to show an animal in a show under the contracted judge that was purchased from the contracted judge for a period of at least 60-days post sale.
6. Exhibitors will not socialize or offer lodging with the contracted judge within 3 days of the show, nor will they socialize with the judge at pens or trailers until after the show is complete.
7. Exhibitors will not offer any side agreements that would knowingly alter the placings.
8. All sheep must be properly washed and sheared.
9. Sheep may be shown with or without halters in all classes.
10. Entry fee is $10.00 per head.
11. Showmanship will be open to all Junior exhibitors. Showmanship classes will be broken by age and/or show experience. No entry fee for Showmanship
12. Youth Show sheep (including lambs) should arrive no later than Noon Thursday to be checked in. All sheep must be removed from Stephens County Fair & Expo Center by 10 AM Sunday.
13. All sheep brought to the Stephens County Fair & Expo Center must have an official certificate (health paper) and a USDA scrapie identification tag.
14. Show management reserves the right to change, combine or delete classes with insufficient entries.
